Route: Bodrum – Northern Dodecanese

Kos

Day 1: Bodrum

Our boat will anchor in Bodrum Port for dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 2: Kos

After breakfast, we will cruise to Kos Island, where you can take a quick swim in Lambi Beach very close to Kos Harbour. We'll spend the evening in Kos, which has a lively night life, colourful, and full of life.

Day 3: Pserimos – Leros

After breakfast in one of Pserimos's paradise bays, we head to Leros. The island of Artemis, goddess of forests, certainly lives up to its name. After lunch and a swim in Xerakampos, we will anchor in the east of the island. You can visit Platanos with its steep stairs, narrow streets and flower gardens. From there take the 300 steps leading up the Castle. Rent a bike or explore by foot.

Patmos

Day 4: Patmos

We will cruise to Patmos Island for a swim. Patmos is known as the Island of the Apocalypse! Despite this, it was named one of Europe's Most Idyllic Places by Forbes in 2009. With its white houses, green slopes and turquoise coves, the latter title is far more appropriate. You can take an optional tour of The Monastery of St. John's, which towers above the island. Our yacht will stay in Patmos Port for dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 5: Lipsi

Surrounded by beautiful blue seas, great beaches and bird-filled islets, Lipsi is a great place to find peace and tranquillity. Should that not take your fancy, it's also home to a host of tavernas and restaurants. Be sure to visit the churches of Catopanaghia (7th century) and Panopanaghia (15th century).

Kalymnos Harbour

Day 6: Kalymnos

Your last stop before heading back to Turkish waters is Kalymnos, home of some stunning beaches, including Mirties and Vlyhadia. Enjoy the sun and sea or take a trip to one of the towns, where locals earn their keep through harvesting sea sponges.

Day 7: Akvaryum – Bodrum

Back in Turkish waters, we will have a swimming break at the crystal clear waters of Akvaryum (Aquarium) where you can see the fish swimming below you. We will be staying at Bodrum Harbour for dinner and our final overnight stay.

Morning on the Aegean Sea

Day 8: Bodrum

The guests will leave the boat with precious memories by 10:30 after breakfast.

Please note depending on sea and weather conditions, the captain reserves the right to make necessary changes to the tour itinerary to ensure the safety and comfort of our guests.
